Eliot School of Fine & Applied Arts
Invites Community to Farewell Celebration for Outgoing Leaders, Abigail Norman and Alison Croney Moses

Boston, MA

The Eliot School of Fine & Applied Arts is thrilled to invite members of the Jamaica Plain community and anyone else who has been involved with the Eliot School to a celebration honoring and thanking our departing Executive Director, Abigail Norman, and departing Associate Director, Alison Croney Moses.

During their time at the Eliot School, Abigail and Alison developed and grew many of our most successful programs, including Teen Bride, Artist in Residence, School & Community Partnerships, the Summer Program for Children, and Career Pathways in Carpentry and Craft. Abigail and Alison have given so much to the school during their respective 17 and 10 year tenures with us, and this celebration is an opportunity to thank them for all they have done for the Eliot School community and beyond.

Join us on Sunday, January 28 in the art and sewing rooms on the second floor of our schoolhouse at 24 Eliot Street in Jamaica Plain anytime between 3 PM and 6 PM. We will have crafts, music, and refreshments to enjoy while you connect and reflect with Abigail and Alison. There will also be a brief program including the unveiling of a scholarship plaque at 4 PM.

The event is free and open to all ages. If you plan to attend, we ask that you please register through the Eventbrite linked below by this Sunday, January 21, so we know approximately how many guests to expect.
