

Updated 11/12/24

Eliot School Youth Vacation Programs: Student Code of Conduct

All students and families enrolled in an Eliot School Youth Vacation Program must abide by this code of conduct as a condition for participating in our programs.

Student Code of Conduct

No violence or bullying of any kind.

Always respect each other's differences in race, ethnicity, age, ability, gender identity and expression, size, sexuality, religion, politics, culture, and economic status.

Be respectful of all staff members, students, peers, teachers, and guests.

Respect all art supplies, equipment, and property. Treat them with care.

Be supportive of one another, especially regarding individual artistic abilities and creative efforts.

Cell phones are not permitted during program hours. They should be stored and on silent during classes. In some emergency situations, staff may give permission for phones to be used.